How We Steward Your Giving
To Strive Toward Our Mission

“For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing.”

| 2 Timothy 4:6-8

Friends,

As we studied 2 Timothy this past year, we were reminded that in order to live lives that truly matter, which leave legacies that last, we are called to be people who seek first the kingdom of God. Paul demonstrated in his life the beauty of sacrificial living, of pouring out his life as a drink offering for others, and in so doing receiving the rewards of God.

The following pages are a glimpse of how so many of you give your lives away through your serving, your giving, your praying, and so many other ways in which God calls us to be His disciples. The record below is a mere snapshot of all the wonderful things God has done in the last year through the sacrifices of His people. We, as elders and staff, hope and pray that this is an encouragement to all of us that God is at work in our church, our city, and beyond, as we faithfully steward the resources He has given us.

GROWING IN OUR LOVE FOR GOD

Children's Ministry

"'Mommy! Guess what I want to be when I grow up?' After several missed attempts to guess correctly she finally gave me a hint. 'It starts with a M.' So, I asked, 'A mommy? Married?'" 'No! A missionary!' she beamed. I do not know whether this little girl will grow up to be a missionary but, I do know that [Expedition to Norway] and Mission Sundays have made her heart tender toward missions all year long." - Sherry H.

Community Groups

"When we first started the group, I was worried about my own gifts and ability to lead; but God has shown me that it is not about me, that He is in charge, and that He uses each member to encourage and lead the whole...What a joy it has been to get to know these now dear friends and be encouraged through them to know and love Jesus more...We need each other and the gifts God has given us. These gifts help build each other up and glorify Him. (Eph. 2:15-16)."
